The Cats are coming back!

When he was hired in November of 2003, Mike Stoops inherited a football program that had fallen on hard times.

He immediately showed he could recruit and began to bring better athletes to Tucson. He also watched his first two clubs finish with identical 3-8 marks, knowing his Wildcats were a play here and a play there from being a much better team.

In the second half of the 2006 campaign, the months and months of hard work began to pay off. UofA became a giant killer, knocking off Pac-10 foes Washington State, California and Oregon in consecutive contests.

Everyone knows a 6-6 ledger is a big step up from 3-8.

So what lies ahead in 2007?

Most Pac-10 experts predict the Cats will put together a winning mark and play in a bowl game for the first time in many years. Good things usually happen to teams that return 44 lettermen, including an impressive 19 starters.

As you may know, Stoops has made significant changes to try to spark his less-than-spectacular offensive attack. In fact, Arizona posted very modest averages of 17 points and 253 total offense yards per game last fall.

Sonny Dykes, of recent Texas Tech fame, was hired as the offensive coordinator to help push those numbers to much more respectable levels. And his track record says he'll do exactly that.

The stats for returning quarterback Willie Tuitama should take a big jump this year. The 6-3, 220-pound junior passed for 1,335 yards and seven TDs last year. He connected on 56% of his throws. Of course, he battled some concussion problems that limited his playing time in the first half of the season, but he should do much better in 2007.

With the Dykes system in place, UofA is going to throw the ball a lot more out of multiple formations. That means wideouts Mike Thomas (5-8, 175, Jr.) and Anthony Johnson (6-2, 210, Sr.) are going to see the pigskin more frequently.

As a sophomore in 2006, Thomas gathered in 50 passes for 597 yards and two scores. Johnson contributed 26 catches for 312 yards and three TDs. Youngsters like redshirt freshmen Terrell Turner (6-2, 175), Terrell Reese (6-4, 210) and Delashaun Dean (6-4, 198) will have every opportunity to show what they can do. Junior Travis Bell (6-6, 245) and redshirt freshman A.J. Simmons (6-3, 255) are battling for the starting nod at tight end.

Arizona's running backs are unproven. Former walk-on Chris Jennings (5-10, 225, Sr.) had a nice 2006 season, scampering for 451 yards rushing. Backups Xavier Smith (5-11, 199, So.), Terry Longbons (5-11, 200, So.) and Glyndon Bolasky (6-0, 205, Fr.) arrived on campus with great credentials, but they still must show they can compete at this level. Smith did run for 120 yards last year. The starting H-Back is sophomore Earl Mitchell (6-2, 250), a fine blocker and a capable receiver.

The young offensive line that took its lumps last year has grown up. All five starters – LT Peter Graniello (6-5, 296, Sr.), LG Daniel Borg (6-5, 276, So.), C Blake Kerley (6-2, 275, So.), RG Joe Longacre (6-3, 303, Jr.) and RT Eben Britton (6-6, 290, So.) – return and that should be a big plus for this year's squad. The Cats must continue to develop quality depth here. Somebody needs to push the starters and be ready to step in if injuries occur.

Mike Thomas stretches for the end zone against UCLA. Thomas registered 50 receptions last year and will play an very important role for the Cats in 2007 (photo by J&L Photography).

On the other side of the football, UofA has few problems. Defensive coordinator Mark Stoops has done a fine job; his guys have demonstrated talent, heart, speed and physical play.

With the Wildcat offense struggling for most the season, last year's defense allowed just 20 points and 326 yards per game. They had 26 takeaways and 15 sacks.

Seniors Louis Holmes, Spencer Larsen and Antoine Cason are the leaders. All three are candidates for conference and national honors.

Holmes, a 6-6, 270-pound defensive end, transferred from Scottsdale Community College a year ago. He went through his transition year to Division I football in 2006 and posted respectable numbers – 36 tackles, four sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. He'll be much better this time out.

Larsen is a 6-1, 236-pound linebacker who led Arizona in tackles last season. He totaled 89 tackles (10.5 for losses), two sacks, one interception, three recovered fumbles and two forced fumbles. He's one of those players that seems to be everywhere and really disrupts what the other team is trying to do.

Cason (6-1, 182) might be the most talented player on the team. He's a great cover corner who was in on 62 stops last year. He also snagged three interceptions, even though the opposition didn't throw the ball his way too much.

Assisting Cason in the secondary are holdover starters Wilrey Fontenot (5-9, 174, Sr.) and Dominic Patrick (6-1, 207, Sr.). Fontenot plays the corner opposite Cason and Patrick returns at free safety. Cam Nelson (6-1, 180, So.), Brandon Tatum (6-1, 181, So.) and Michael Klyece

(6-0, 193, Jr.) are competing for the open spot at strong safety.

Besides Larsen, the linebacking corps features junior Ronnie Palmer (6-3, 239) in the middle and senior Dane Krogstad (6-2, 236) on the strong side.

Palmer had 69 tackles and two picks, while Krogstad had 41 stops and one interception. This is a good set of linebackers, but quality depth is once again an issue. Wildcat fans are hoping Larsen, Palmer and Krogstad can stay healthy.

Holmes has plenty of help on the defensive front. Junior DE Johnathan Turner (6-3, 250) teams with senior tackles Yaniv Barnett (6-1, 285) and Lionel Dotson (6-4, 278) to form a top-caliber line.

Dotson had 31 tackles, including one sack, last year. Turner showed 18 stops, including two for negative yardage. Barnett also had 18 tackles and recovered a fumble.

The punting chores should go to red-shirt freshman Keenyn Crier, while the placekicking duties belong to junior Jason Bondzio right now. Alex Zendejas, a talented freshman from Ironwood High School in Glendale, could be a factor in the kicking game.

Mike Thomas, Mike Turner, B.J. Dennard, Chris Jennings and possibly soph Devin Ross are leading candidates for kickoff and punt returns.

The schedule is not particularly kind – with the opener on the road against BYU, along with away games against Pac-10 rivals California, Oregon State, USC, Washington and ASU.

Coach Dennis Bene appears to have another state contender at SALPOINTE CATHOLIC. Gone is Kris O'Dowd, Southern Arizona Player of the Year and Arizona Lineman of the Year (see pages 12 and 32AZ). He'll suit up for Southern Cal this year.

But the Lancers are still a powerful squad. Headliners include honors candidates Lucas Gregor, Kevin Grenier, Martin Rodriguez, Charles Blase and Moses Roberts – all seniors.

Gregor (6-4, 215) plays outside linebacker and tight end. Grenier (6-4, 210) is the quarterback. Rodriguez (5-11, 180) is a major contributor at wide receiver and defensive back. Blase (5-11, 170) is a double threat at placekicker and punter. Roberts (5-10, 190) is a defensive specialist at linebacker or strong safety.

The quickest of the Lancers – Mike Desciscio (5-10, 160, Jr.) – and Kyle McCartin (5-10, 180, Sr.) are the chief running backs. Senior Chris Miller (5-9, 180) could see some duty in the backfield, although he'll spend a lot of his time at linebacker.

Two-way linemen Chris Claxton (6-1, 260, Jr.), Bryce Rodriguez (6-2, 260, Jr.) and Matt Spear (6-2, 260, Jr.) will make their presence known.

Altogether, Salpointe returns 26 lettermen from last year's 10-2 club that reached the 5A-1 quarterfinals. Bene's record now stands at 56-15 for the Lancers, who have won 33 of their last 35 region contests.

A couple of major college prospects are the prime movers at BUENA, where Coach

Michael Vezzosi hopes his Colts can take a good run at the 5A-1 state playoffs.

Womble, a 5-11, 215-pound senior, has great speed (4.41) and is being recruited by a number of big-time Division I powers.

Before he makes his way to any college campus, he'll play running back and either defensive back or linebacker for Buena.

Muasau (6-2, 205) is a two-way performer at wide receiver and defensive back. He's a real standout in the secondary, covering a lot of ground with his 4.5 speed.

Also returning from last year's 6-4 unit are TE/DE Nick Stewart (6-2, 225, Sr.), OL/DL Arthur Cervantes (5-11, 240, Sr.), OL/DL Jon Saylor (6-1, 245, Jr.), FB/LB David Alexander (5-10, 200, Sr.), DB/K/P Russell Klabough (6-3, 180, Sr.), DE/OL Scott Adams (5-11, 208, So.), DE/OL Joe Arnason (6-4, 240, Sr.) and WR/DB Nathan Tuggle (6-0, 175).

Newcomers of note are TE/DE Derek Lane (6-2, 195, Jr.) and QB Taylor Stone (6-3, 210, Jr.). It could be a good year in Sierra Vista.

CASA GRANDE has a good group coming back this year. Eleven letterwinners return from a team that won eight of 10 outings before bowing to Mesa Mountain View in the first round of the 5A-1 state playoffs. Members of last year's 6-3 JV could also be of assistance.

Coach Tracy Stuart has first-class running backs like Harnish Ayora (6-0, 195), Clay Martinez (6-0, 195) and Chris Brooks

(6-1, 192) – all seniors – to carry the pigskin.

They'll run behind an O-Line powered by Ryan Cunningham (6-1, 268, Sr.), Will Campos (6-1, 220, Sr.), John Cave (6-2, 265, Jr.) and Matt Yourupicio (6-1, 260, Jr.).

The leading receivers should be WR Dominique Keeton (6-3, 175, Sr.), WR Torrey Edwards (5-9, 165, Jr.) and TE Mike Subia (6-2, 190, Sr.).

TUCSON Head Coach Vincent Smith will roam the sidelines once again for the Badgers this fall. The good news is he'll have 26 varsity veterans back in uniform. The bad news is the Badgers finished 0-10 a year ago.

Smith and company have high hopes that 2007 will be a turnaround year. The talented and versatile Joe Bass, a 5-10, 175-pound senior, will certainly be a positive force. He could see action at running back, wide receiver and/or defensive back this season.

A couple of wideouts – seniors Wilson Reuter (5-11, 170) and Eric House (6-5, 220) – are talented and quick. Battling in the trenches will be the likes of OL Joaquin Rojas (6-4, 250, Sr.), OL Garrett Edgerson (6-4, 280, Sr.), OL Raul Gonzalez (5-11, 250, Jr.), DL Anthony Martinez (6-1, 220, Sr.) and DE Daniel Romero (6-0, 205, Jr.). In addition to Bass, the secondary is paced by junior Daniel Malone (6-1, 180) and sophomore Roberto Verdugo (6-1, 180).

Head Coach Richard Sanchez has a sparkling 127-40 record in his 14 years at SUNNYSIDE. The Blue Devils are expected to win a lot of big games again this season, since they return 22 lettermen from a team that reached the 5A-2 finals and captured 11 wins against just three losses in 2006.

Standout senior running back Jovan Stevenson (5-10, 185) will provide much of the offensive firepower for this edition of Sunnyside football. He rambled for significant yards last fall. His backfield mates will be QB/DB Jaime Valdez (6-3, 170, Sr.), RB/DB Manny Aguilar (5-10, 185, Jr.), FB/DB Luis Acuna (5-9, 210, Sr.) and Malik Parra (5-10, 175, Jr.). Senior wide receiver Alan Berrellez (5-9, 170) is another weapon for the Blue Devils.

Two-way linemen Hugo Blanco (6-2, 240, Sr.), Jorge Mazon (5-9, 235, Jr.), Chris Hart (6-0, 275, Sr.) and Alan Levario (6-0, 225, Jr.) will also have their moments.

back – big, powerful and quick Dan Moore – will have a lot to do with fortunes at MARANA MOUNTAIN VIEW this year. Moore (5-11, 215) has 4.6 speed.

Quarterback Ben Johnson (6-0, 185) is also top-notch. Others to keep your eye on are C Sterling Nymeier (6-3, 225, Sr.), DE Pat O'Sullivan (6-0, 195, Sr.), DE Robert McHugh (6-0, 200, Sr.), REC Tui Mauai (6-3, 180, Jr.), QB/REC Chris Evenson (5-11, 170, Jr.), REC/DB Hector Campo (6-0, 165, Jr.), RB/LB Kameron Kamferer (6-1, 215, Sr.), REC/DB Jon Ohiaeri (6-2, 170, Sr.) and REC/DB Collin Robinson (5-10, 150, Sr.).

Coach Paul Schmidt is a first-year coach for the Mountain Lions, hoping to improve on last fall's 6-5 slate. A total of 17 lettermen return for Mountain View.

"Brandon Hall should be one of the top players in our league," says CIBOLA Head Coach Lucky Arvizo. We thought so much of his outstanding junior season that we named him our Yuma County Player of the Year for 2006 (see page 16).

Hall, a 5-11, 180-pound senior, is a "go-to" running back for the Raiders. Also back for Cibola, 7-3 a year ago, are WR Jacob Snyder (5-11, 170, Jr.), LB Josh Tamayo (6-0, 195, Sr.) and LB Ryan Perce (5-11, 190, Sr.).

IRONWOOD RIDGE moves up to the 5A-2 ranks in 2007, after advancing to the 4A-1 quarterfinals last campaign. It's a challenge for Coach Gary Minor's Nighthawks, but they certainly appear ready for the test.

Seventeen varsity veterans are back and raring to go for Ironwood Ridge. A trio of performers – DE/OT Wes Hohman (6-3, 240, Sr.), LB/RB Jake Fischer (5-11, 210, Jr.) and RB/CB D'juan Cherry (5-10, 185, Sr.) – earned individual honors in 2006. They'll be even better this year.

Minor also anticipates solid play from S/WR Chris Lopez (5-11, 185, Sr.), SB/CB Steve Radler (5-9, 170, Sr.), OG/DE Trent Kamins (6-3, 235, Sr.), RB/OLB Adrian Ruiz (5-7, 165, Sr.), C/DL Marvin Snodgrass (5-11, 215, Jr.), WR/S Jay Helixon (6-3, 180, Sr.), DT Tyrone Williams

(5-10, 255, Jr.) and OLB Robert Humbert (5-10, 160, Sr.).

New Head Coach Pat Ryden inherits a team at RINCON that split their 12 games last year, winding up at 6-6. A formidable bunch of 13 starters are back to do some damage.

Big lineman Nick Ryan (6-5, 255) is a senior to watch at offensive tackle and defensive end. He'll receive support from fellow lineman Andres Thompson (5-10, 215, Sr.).

The Rangers have an offensive attack with QB Tommy Stubbins (6-0, 180), RB Eric Dang (5-8, 165), WR Ian Theel (6-1, 180) and WR Andrew Martinez (6-0, 170) playing key roles. All are seniors.

Defensively, Rincon is strong at line-backer, where seniors Travis Malboeuf (5-11, 185), John LePage (5-10, 180) and Michael Russo (5-10, 180) cover sideline to sideline. Defensive back Bryan Marchbanks (5-9, 165, Sr.) is also a prominent player for the Rangers.

Five starters are back in uniform for YUMA, 3-7 a year ago. Graduates from a respectable 6-3 junior varsity will also find playing time.

The headliners are LB Michael Bradley (5-11, 175, Jr.), RB/LB John McCormick (5-9, 180, Sr.), RB JC Baker (5-6, 150, So.) and DL Martin Valdez (5-7, 180, Sr.).

Coach Jay Denton is working to establish a proud program at SAN LUIS. And, although the Sidewinders haven't had much success yet (0-10 in 2006), Denton's guys will take the field in 2007, looking for some breakthrough wins.

Eight letterwinners are still on hand for Denton, who expects his club will rely on RB/DB Gonzalo Contreras (5-9, 170), TE/DE Brandon Schroder (6-0, 180), C/DE Roberto Amaya (5-10, 207), OG/NG Jonathan Piceno (5-8, 212), SE/DB Roberto Amaya Jr. (6-0, 156), OG/LB Miguel Pina (5-9, 222) and FB/LB Bryan Richie (5-11, 170) to make a difference this fall. Each of these players are seniors.

At the 4A-1 level, perennial powerhouse SABINO is still at the head of the class. The Sabercats couldn't quite run the table last year, losing to Scottsdale Saguario in the finale at University of Phoenix Stadium. But they will challenge for the same crown this season.

Seventeen letterwinners are back from last fall's 12-2 unit. Foremost among that group are DE/OL Lucas Volk (6-3, 245), DT/OL Jason Nottingham (6-2, 275), DB/REC Mark Dragoslovich (5-11, 180), LB/OL Chris Hare (6-0, 200), RB/LB Scott Brown (6-1, 200), K Bobby Bird (5-10, 175) and TE/LB Riley Bushman (6-1, 195). All are seniors except Brown.

Sabino has both size and speed. Coach Jay Campos has especially high praise for Volk and Nottingham.

One of the better quarterbacks in Southern Arizona plays for Coach Pat Nugent at CANYON DEL ORO. Senior signal caller Daniel Nicholas (6-3, 185) is coming back from a fine junior campaign and he should enjoy an excellent senior year.

Of course, he needs someone to grab some passes and the Dorados are not hurting for receivers. The best returnees in that category are WR Ray Nettling (5-10, 185), TE Joe Bortano (6-2, 200), WR Derek Brown (6-0, 185) and WR Derek Matlock (5-11, 180) – all seniors.

Senior John Bour (5-11, 200) and junior Griffen Ronstadt (5-9, 165) are the primary running backs heading into the 2007 season. The offensive line is sparked by Brent Lush (5-10, 230, Sr.), John Tabor (6-0, 210, Sr.) and TJ Jacob (5-9, 200, Sr.).

It looks like another good year is in store for CDO fans. Nugent's team finished 8-3 a year ago. Twenty-two lettermen are back. The 2006 JV was 7-2. And the Dorados return a top-notch quarterback for his senior season. These are all very positive signs.

Coach Chuck McCollum has a very workable number (20) of returning lettermen at SAHUARO, but only two starters are back from his 6-5 unit of a year ago.

In other words, the Cougars may be a much better team in the second half of the year, after all the new starters adjust to the task at hand. McCollum is relying on holdovers like FB/LB Danny Alvarez (6-1, 210, Sr.), OT/DT Brett Jividen (6-4, 250, Sr.), FB/LB Dom San Angelo (6-0, 180, Sr.) and QB Jordan Underhill (6-0, 190, Sr.) to show the way.

Other mainstays in the 2007 Sahuaro Cougar lineup figure to be OT/DT Matt Fierro (6-0, 200, Sr.), OT/DT Russel Mesielman (5-10, 220, Sr.), WR/CB Matt Carnaghi (6-0, 185, Sr.), WR/CB Chad Saline (5-9, 170, Sr.), OG/DT Will Grijalva (5-9, 200, Sr.), C/DE Mason Holder (6-0, 200, Jr.) and RB/CB Teddy Gaston (5-9, 160, Sr.).

Head mentor Nemer Hassey is doing a fantastic job at CIENEGA. His Bobcats were an impressive 9-3 last year, reaching the 4A-1 state quarterfinals. Eighteen letterwinners are back, although only four of those veterans started a year ago. And the JV was unbeaten (8-0-1).

This year's club will be led by WR/CB Paul Carrizoza (5-8, 160, Sr.) and OT/DT Zach Davila (6-4, 290, Sr.). Both should garner their share of postseason honors.

Besides Carrizoza, the receiving corps includes Zach Dietrich (5-6, 150, Sr.), Brandon Mazzola (5-9, 180, Sr.) and Ryan Miller (5-8, 160, Sr.). In addition to Davila, the leaders in the lines are Santiago Rocha (5-10, 220, Sr.), Andrew Saenz (5-10, 240, Sr.), Nic Svob (6-1, 190, Sr.) and Greg Taylor (5-9, 180, Sr.).

Mazzola, Wes Knight (6-1, 190, Sr.) and Andy Romero (5-10, 200, Sr.) form a very efficient set of linebackers.

In his first two years at the school, MARANA Coach Willie Dudley registered five victories against 15 defeats. Last year the tide turned and his guys wound up 6-5 on the year.

Skillful players like QB/S Robert Rowe and TB/DB Fabian Zazueta certainly helped the cause. Rowe (6-2, 185) excelled at both quarterback and safety, while Zazueta (5-11, 175) operated at tailback and defensive back. Rowe is actually the quickest player on the team.

Of course, the Marana lines must handle their share of the workload; that means OG/DE Jesse Backerman (6-4, 235, Sr.), OG/DE Kyle Lundeen (6-3, 243, Sr.), C Joe Martin (5-10, 185, Sr.) and OT Will Youn (6-2, 210, Sr.) must be consistently good.

Also back among the 26 lettermen still available to Coach Dudley are RB/LB Spencer Elliott (5-10, 175, Sr.), DB Dallin Wengert (5-11, 155, Sr.), LB Michael Martin Moreno (5-11, 200, Sr.), LB Emilio Rojel (5-8, 185, Sr.), WR/FS Zebulon Rusemore (5-9, 165, Sr.), LB Eric Montgomery (6-3, 190, Jr.) and WR Justin Faust (5-9, 155, Jr.).

The NOGALES Apaches are on the move, thanks to the guidance of Head Coach James Martinez. This team concluded the 2006 season with a trip to the playoffs and a 7-4 ledger, after winning just two games the year before.

Martinez has nine starters back in uniform from that team, so it's easy to be optimistic about the 2007 campaign. There's good talent and experience at the skill positions, headed by RB/WR Andy Garcia (5-11, 175, Jr.) and QB Miguel Maldonado (6-0, 185, Sr.). Garcia has 4.5 speed.

Expect WR Eddy Lopez (5-11, 175, Sr.), RB/DB Nick Rodriguez (5-7, 160, Sr.), WR

Eloy Cortez (6-2, 175, Jr.), RB/DB Edgar Villegas (5-8, 170, Sr.) and RB/LB Jose Vega (5-9, 180, Jr.) to also make some plays.

The Apaches may not be the biggest team in Arizona, but they can still be physical, especially with the likes of DE/LB Carlos Navarro (6-1, 190, Sr.), LB Miguel Alcantar (5-9, 185, Sr.), OL Max Montt (5-10, 215, Jr.), OL Juan Espriecueta (5-10, 215, Jr.), LB Abel Sanchez (5-10, 185, Sr.), DL Juan Cano (6-1, 220, Sr.) and OL David Romero (6-1, 220, Sr.).

The headliners at DESERT VIEW include four seniors and a junior. Certainly, Jim Monaco, in his first year as the head coach of the Jaguars, thinks HB/MLB A.J. Willis will be a player to watch this year. He's tough and very quick.

The quarterback is junior Brandon Gilliard (6-1, 198). He can hand the ball to Willis or pass it to slotback Marc Jackson (5-10, 184, Sr.) or wideout Lee Abrahams (5-10, 187, Sr.).

Another of the 14 returning starters is OG/LB Rene Robles (5-11, 200, Sr.). The Jaguars showed a 4-6 record last fall. Topping that mark won't be easy, but it's definitely possible.

PALO VERDE is comfortable in the favorite's role after a couple of extraordinary years. Coach Todd Mayfield's Titans won the 4A-2 state crown two years ago and were region champs last season. They're very highly regarded in 2007.

Four key players – WR/DB Adam Hall (6-2, 180, Jr.), HB/DB Andric Booker (5-10, 150, Sr.), OT/DT Jonathan McCroy (6-3, 270, Sr.) and HB/LB Robert Grant (5-9, 170, Sr.) – return to give the Titans a strong foundation this year. Altogether, 17 letterwinners are back from last season's 7-4 unit.

Other notables are TE/DE Mike Rodriguez (6-2, 220, Sr.), OT/DT Marcus Cools (6-6, 270, Sr.), OT/DT Derrell Palmer (6-5, 270, Sr.), FB/LB Lee Bloxham (5-11, 190, Sr.), OG/LB Victor Larranaga (5-8, 215, Sr.) and FB/LB Cyril Straker (5-8, 190, Sr.).

"We are moving from 4A-1 to 4A-2, so we're not familiar with players from some of these teams," says CATALINA Head Coach Shawn Wasson.

Still, it probably won't take too long to adjust and it might be a good move for the Trojans. Seven starters are back from their 4-6 club of a year ago.

High on that list of returning performers are WR/DB James Eichberger (5-10, 160, Sr.), RB/LB Casey Johnson (5-11, 170, Sr.), RB/LB Zoar Morales (5-10, 195, Sr.), OL/DL Hassilo Kushkoki (6-0, 210, Sr.) and QB/DB Justin Hoogland (5-10, 145, Sr.). Eichberger is talented, quick (4.55) and should land some awards for his play this year.

Additional support will come from OL/DL Kevin Rountree (6-1, 225, Jr.), WR/DE Andrew Grant (6-2, 195, Sr.), OL/DL Luis Rodriguez (5-8, 230, Sr.), QB/LB Brad Quinn (5-10, 170, Jr.), QB/DB Daniel McIver (6-0, 150, Jr.) and RB/DB Marcell Gray (5-9, 165, Sr.).

Jairo Pena (5-11, 230) and Charles Hill (6-2, 185) are a couple of steady veterans returning for their senior campaigns at DOUGLAS. Pena is a fullback and defensive tackle; Hill plays tight end and linebacker. The Bulldogs concluded last season with a 4-6 slate.

Running back-defensive back Ronald Hopper (5-10, 175) will be a positive force for the Panthers at AMPHITHEATER. He ran for over 200 yards last year in a supporting role and will be more of a headliner for Coach Verne Friedli this year.

SANTA RITA returns 14 lettermen from last year. Coach Jeff Scurran is counting on seniors Ace Chuisano and Chris Johnson to fill primary roles. Chuisano (6-0, 210) is a linebacker and running back with 4.7 speed. Johnson (6-1, 160) is a dependable quarterback set to run the Eagles' offensive attack.

Wideouts J.J. Holiday (6-0, 150, Jr.) and Christian Quintanilla (6-0, 140, Sr.) will fortify the receiving corps.

Additional Santa Rita mainstays are OG/DL Paul Perez (6-1, 190, Sr.), DE Orlando Roscon (5-6, 160, Sr.), DB Troy Smith (6-0, 155, Sr.), DB Clint Smith (5-9, 140, Sr.) and DE Andy Goble (6-0, 160, Sr.).

Scurran sports an overall coaching record of 220-73-1, even though his glittering winning percentage is suffering a little right now. He'll turn it around.

LINEMAN-SALPOINTE CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR SOUTHERN ARIZONA PLAYER OF THE YEAR

KRIS O'DOWD WON THIS HONOR BASED ON A VOTE BY THE EDITORIAL STAFF OF THE SOUTHERN ARIZONA FOOTBALL MAGAZINE

Coolidge in Historic Title Run Thatcher Also Favored

Power back Brad Jackson should be a major contributor to the Coolidge offensive attack, as the Bears attempt to defend their 3A state crown (Paynter Pics).

Coach Carlo Hernandez and his COOLIDGE Bears have won back-to-back championships. In the history of Arizona 3A football, just three schools have ever won three consecutive state crowns. If Coolidge prevails in 2007, the Bears will join the 1978-80 Santa Cruz Dust Devils, the 1991-93 Snowflake Lobos and the 1994-97 Blue Ridge Yellowjackets as the only three-peaters! (Of course, Blue Ridge stands by itself, capturing four titles in a row, posting four straight 13-0 campaigns in the process.)

But enough about history. Do the Bears have the team to get the job done? We think they do. The Bears are the near unanimous choice by opposing coaches to make it three in a row. Coach Carlo Hernandez has 22 lettermen back from his 12-1 powerhouse. Want to know how dominant the Bears have been lately? Hernandez sports a 78-10 record in his seven-year tenure at the school.

His biggest star this year might be senior FB/LB Brad Jackson, a 5-11, 210-pound senior with 4.55 speed. He'll get plenty of chances to make big plays in 2007. Taking over for Wheeler at quarterback will be either Charlie Garrett (5-9, 160, Jr.) or George Jones (5-11, 165, Sr.).

Placekicker Cody Barber (6-0, 175, Sr.) is a key performer for Coolidge, along with TE/LB Andrew Ashford (5-11, 180, Sr.), OL/DL Clay Gillespie (6-2, 220, Jr.), OL/DL Wyn Henderson (5-10, 220, Sr.), OL/DL Derek Gonzales (5-10, 200, Sr.), RB/DE Rodney Reagans (5-11, 210, Jr.), WR/LB Kevin Mitchell (5-10, 165, Jr.), WR/DB Zac Ross (5-10, 160, Sr.) and RB/DB Jeremy White (5-9, 145, Jr.).

If any team in the 3A South is going to dethrone Coolidge, it'll probably be the SAFFORD Bulldogs.

A new head coach will inherit 22 lettermen, including nine regulars. And the JV had some talent a year ago, recording a perfect 9-0 mark.

There's excellent talent in the offensive backfield, in addition to good size and experience in the O-Line. Junior quarterback Justin Smith (6-0, 180) is a keeper. He runs the offense well and has terrific speed (4.6).

When Safford chooses to run, Smith can give the ball to senior backs Darryl Thomas (5-11, 165), Tyrell Andrews (5-8, 165) and Tony Larson (6-0, 190). Smith can also throw the ball to WR Michael Folar (5-11, 175, Jr.) and TE Steven Hernandez (6-1, 200, Sr.).

Anchoring the lines are seniors Jason Baca (6-2, 255), Luis Villalba (6-6, 235) and Daniel Romero-Zuniga (6-2, 325).

FLORENCE is gaining enrollment at record pace; now the Gophers have to adjust to life in the 3A ranks. The competition is fierce, but the 2007 Gophers could be up to the challenge.

Despite an unimpressive 2-8 ledger in 2006, many opposing coaches believe Florence could be tough this time out. Coach Shawn Cluff welcomes back 17 lettermen – including 12 starters.

A half-dozen players – QB Cash Clemans (5-10, 155), REC/DB Andy Martinez (5-9, 165), TB/LB Larry Andersen (5-9, 170), REC/LB Alfred Woods (6-2, 185), OL/DL Mickey Tryon (6-3, 225) and FB/LB Chase Simon (5-8, 185) – are mentioned by Cluff as his foundation for this year's team.

Clemans runs the offense well. Andersen is the quickest. Simon is the lone junior in that group.

"We will be young and have a limited number of players with varsity experience," says GLOBE head mentor Mike O'Neal. The Tigers do have a dozen varsity veterans on the field; those players helped record a 6-4 slate in 2006.

He's heavy with experienced skill-position players like RB/DB Brady Wager (6-0, 180, Jr.), WR/DB Colten Phillips (6-0, 175, Sr.), RB/DB Tober Francom (5-11, 200, Sr.), RB/LB Nathaniel Smith (5-9, 170, Jr.), TE/DE Brian Burgener (6-0, 185, Sr.) and WB/LB Damon Valencia (5-8, 170, Jr.).

Globe's number one returnee on the line is two-way standout Manny Bejarano (6-0, 205, Jr.).

Coach Jorge Mendivil seems to be putting together a solid program at EMPIRE,

Southern Arizona 3A Top 7

- 1) Coolidge Bears 78-10 With Hernandez as Coach
- 2) Safford Bulldogs QB Justin Smith Sparks Offense
- 3) Florence Gophers..... 12 Starters Back for Coach Cluff
- 4) Globe Tigers6-4 Last Year
- 5) Empire RavensExperienced Team Ready for 3A South Play
- 6) Santa Cruz Dust Devils.....Strong Group of Running Backs
- 7) Maricopa RamsMoving Up from the 2A Classification

where his Ravens earned an even split (4-4) in their schedule last year.

All 22 starters return from that team, so Empire should have a say about which teams survive in the tough 3A South Region. Senior Josh Garcia is the most accomplished returning veteran; he's a 5-10, 200-pound tight end and defensive end.

Providing big-time support are QB/FS Adam D'eredita (5-10, 170), WB/SS Tyler Romack (6-0, 175), RB/OLB Gabe Encinas (5-11, 160) and DB Jordan Lynch (5-8, 150) – all seniors.

Top underclassmen are OG/DT Joe McDonough (6-2, 220, Jr.), OT/DE David Gritis (6-2, 190, Jr.), FB/OLB Albert Casella (5-8, 150, Jr.), FB/LB Marcus Jenkins (5-9, 155, Jr.) and RB/DB Cody Woods (5-7, 145, So.).

Coach Al Ocampo is into his second year on the job at SANTA CRUZ. The 2006 campaign left room for improvement (2-8), and that's the Dust Devils' mission for 2007.

Seniors Pat Carn (6-1, 190), Mike Guerrero (5-11, 190), Josh Leja (5-8, 175) and Ed Brady (5-8, 150) comprise a nice set of running backs. Bo Sanchez (5-7, 150, Sr.) and DJ Montijo (5-10, 160, Sr.) are the primary receivers.

The leaders in the line are Miguel Cazares (6-1, 250, Sr.), Mike Lujan (5-11, 180, Sr.) and Bruno Torey (5-8, 150, Sr.).

Denver Householder leads a contingent of 17 varsity veterans back for THATCHER. And they have a fairly easy job – bring back another 2A state title.

Householder is a true leader as both a running back and free safety. He's really quick (4.5) and should enjoy a remarkable senior year for the Eagles (11-4 in 2006).

Other honors candidates returning for Coach Don Conrad are OG/DL David Nicholas (6-0, 195, Sr.), OG/LB Frank Chavez (6-0, 200, Sr.), QB/DB Chris Aaron (6-2, 180, Sr.) and RB/LB Bryant Innes (6-1, 190, Sr.).

You might also follow the play of WR/DB Trent Christensen (5-10, 160, Sr.), RB/LB Jace Beals (6-3, 205, Jr.), OL/DL Jake Schuler (6-2, 240, Sr.), OL/DL Nick Mallenaux (6-5, 275, Sr.) and McKay Stevens (6-1, 180, Jr.).

Things are rolling at HAYDEN, where Coach John Estrada guided his Lobos to a great 12-1 record last year, while the JV was finishing with an unblemished 7-0-1 slate.

A half-dozen key performers – RB/LB Joseph Lopez (5-10, 190, Sr.), C/LB Alejandro Estrada (5-10, 180, Sr.), QB/CB Rudy Figueroa (5-9, 170, Sr.), RB/FS Ramon Figueroa (5-8, 170, Sr.), OG/DT Esteban Gallego (6-0, 200, Sr.) and OT/DT Chris Martinez (6-3, 230, Jr.) – are expected to shine for Hayden this time out.

Seven offensive and six defensive starters returning at BISBEE should bring a smile to Coach Truman Williamson's face. The Pumas were good (8-4) last year and they have an opportunity to be much better in 2007.

Williamson lists his top returnees as QB/S Chris Munsey (6-2, 185, Sr.), QB/LB Sergio Dagnino-Rivera (6-0, 180, So.), RB/DB Jesus Dagnino (5-7, 165, Sr.), RB Steve Gonzales (5-8, 165, Jr.), RB/DB Dominic Gunsauley (5-7, 170, Sr.), RB/DB Matt Becking (6-0, 150, Sr.), SE Alex Navarette (5-7, 150, Sr.), FL/DB Jacob Amos (5-9, 160, Jr.), FL/DB Adrian Baroquez (5-10, 165, Jr.) and RB/LB Matt Metli (6-3, 215, Sr.).

Others to watch include Thor Acuna, Eric Olander, Bryan Earnest, Alonso Dagnino, Willie Enriquez, Carlos Lopez, Luis Guerrero, Jacob Holguin, Carlos Moreno, Emilio Torrez, Roberto Marquez, Willie Rivera, Cesar Acala, Robert Flores and Raul Villaseñor.

The prospects are good at ANTELOPE, where the Rams have 15 lettermen – including a dozen regulars – back on campus. Coach John Blabe, a 24-year veteran at the school, directed his guys to a solid 7-3 record last fall, while the JV was notching a perfect 8-0 campaign.

Best of the Rams figures to be junior QB Chance Mixon (6-1, 170), senior RB Omar Hernandez (5-6, 160) and senior RB Ernesto Hernandez (5-6, 160).

The Vandals of MIAMI were on the right side of the ledger (5-4) last year and Coach George Medrano hopes to build on that. A very solid group of 20 letterwinners are back from that team, including the likes of RB/REC/DB Cam Roland (6-2, 180, Sr.), QB/DB Chris Randall (6-0, 175, Sr.), RB/LB Austin Colman (6-0, 190, Jr.) and OL/DL Jeb Melcher (5-10, 210, Jr.). Roland is very quick (4.6) and is a player to watch.

The offensive line, in particular, is very well stocked. Besides Melcher, Medrano expects big years from Lewis McIntosh (5-10, 230, Sr.), Lawrence Sweat (6-2, 260, Jr.), Gregg Marin (5-9, 210, Jr.), Robert McGauhay (6-3, 260, So.) and Ethan Lopez (6-0, 190, Jr.).

Junior Chris Marin (5-7, 170) has good speed (4.7) and will contribute at running back and defensive back.

Coach Dan Renteria's unit went 6-6 last year and he'll have plenty of familiar faces back in 2007 at SAN MANUEL. Eight starters on each side of the football are scattered among 20 returning letterwinners for the Miners. And don't forget the players from last season's 6-2 junior varsity will lend a hand.

The San Manuel lines are good, thanks to OG/DE David Rodriguez (6-0, 218, Sr.), OG/LB Thomas Greer (5-10, 215, Sr.), OL/DL Josh Zazueta (5-10, 240, Sr.), TE/DL Chris Ronquillo (6-0, 200, So.), OG/DE Jose Vasquez (6-0, 160, So.) and TE/DE George Quijaoa (6-1, 190, Jr.).

That makes the job at hand so much easier for offensive weapons like RB/OLB Mark Tamayo (5-11, 165, Sr.), WR/OLB A.J. Monfred (5-10, 160, Jr.), RB/DB Mark Webber (5-10, 160, Jr.), FB/LB Mike Maginay (5-11, 200, Sr.), QB/SS Matt Phelps (6-0, 155, So.) and FB/LB Adrian Ortega (5-10, 170, So.).

WILLCOX welcomes back a nice group of veterans from its 4-6 team of a year ago. A couple of the best – RB/LB Irving Quezada (5-9, 170) and RB/LB Luis Sanchez (6-0, 190) – should help the cause. Quezada rushed for over 500 yards last year, while Sanchez participated in over 100 tackles.

New head man Rhett Stallworth takes over at YUMA CATHOLIC after three years at the helm of Yuma High. He inherits six starters from a club that won six of 10 games a year ago.

Fortunately, several of his best returning players should provide some real offensive firepower. Junior QB Eric Inman (6-1, 175), senior RB Eric Martinez (5-9, 200), senior WR Brian Badgely (6-0, 180) and junior WR Rod Ford (6-2, 175) have both ability and game experience. Senior LB Jason Koppinger (5-11, 180) is the leading defender on the Shamrocks' roster.

Tony Ammon (6-2, 205), a definite honors candidate, is the best returning player at BENSON. He's a two-way standout at offensive tackle and defensive end for the Bobcats, who completed last year's schedule with a 5-5 ledger. He'll need some help if Benson is to advance to the playoffs this year.

Back for his second year in MORENCI is Head Coach Dale Hooper. Only five starters are back from the Wildcats' 2006 squad that put together two wins in 10 attempts.

Maybe senior C/NG Mick Curley (6-0, 280) can lead his peers to bigger and better things. He'll receive support in the trenches from OL/DL Steven Madrid (5-10, 225, Sr.) and OL/DL Sean White (6-0, 180, So.).

Either Justin Reyes (6-0, 160, Jr.), Colton King (6-3, 185, Jr.) or Joshua Mennen (6-1, 170, So.) should claim the starting job at quarterback.

Other top-notch Morenci performers include LB/WR Armand Morales (5-10, 165, Sr.), LB/RB Voss Jayce (5-10, 175, Sr.), DB/WR Jay Kridell (5-10, 150, Jr.) and DB/WR Spenser Kizzire (5-8, 140, Sr.).

RAY is looking for more wins in 2007. If the Bearcats achieve success, watch for Jordan Huerta and Mario Romero to really produce. Huerta is a 6-4, 185-pound senior quarterback who passed for 500 and ran for 200 yards last year. Meanwhile, Romero (5-9, 155) contributed 800 yards rushing and over 200 yards receiving from his running back position.

Both players are stalwarts in the defense too.

SAN CARLOS is not hurting in the experience department. An amazing 35 lettermen return for Coach Marcos Franco.

Powerful fullback James Phillips, a 5-9, 210-pound senior, will battle for yardage. He's also a major player on defense from his linebacker slot.

The Braves will also rely on OL/LB Ryan Jones (5-10, 190, Sr.), OG/DL Michael Beton (5-11, 240, Sr.), RB/CB Kevin Goode (5-8, 160, Sr.), OT/DT Ethan Randall (6-3, 300, Sr.), RB/LB Kenny Nash (5-8, 160, Sr.), FB/LB Virgil Long (5-10, 180, Jr.), OT/DE Josh Dillon (6-2, 220, Jr.), OT/DT Herschel Elthie (5-9, 215, Jr.) and QB/LB Nathan Perry (5-10, 200, Sr.) to help put some wins on the board this year.

Phelps is a particularly good prospect, despite his tender age.

FORT THOMAS has good offensive firepower back on the field this year, thanks to key performers like QB/DE Demetrius Dosela (6-0, 185, Sr.) and RB/LB Noel Nosie (5-8, 175, Sr.). Dosela passed for over 1,100 yards, while Nosie contributed 700 yards on the ground.

Others to watch include holdovers Bryant Wright, Joseph Titla, Randall Talgo, Meshech Boni, Leeron Cheney, Udall Pike, Daniel Boni, Trevor DeClay, Jamerson Preston, Richard Tope, Jowen Moses and Daryl Bullis.

VALLEY UNION has some high hopes for 2007. Talented senior RB/DB Luis Martinez (5-10, 175) has good speed and should enjoy a banner campaign for the Blue Devils (7-2 in 2006).

He'll receive support from RB/DB Kenny Brown (5-9, 180, Sr.), QB/DB Jordan Landwalen (6-0, 175, Sr.), OG/LB Andy Hedvall (6-4, 205, Sr.), C/NG Cole Christinat (6-0, 210, Sr.), WR/DE Owen Mortenson (6-1, 180, Sr.), TE/DE Drew Sanford (6-2, 185, Sr.) and TE/DE Rafael Peralta (6-0, 190, Sr.).

Coach Tony Luzania, with two years of head coaching experience at Valley Union, has done quite nicely (13-6). There should be more wins on the way this fall.

"We are new to 1A football, but I am sure there are many talented players for us to get to know," says GILA BEND Head Coach Rich Metcalf.

For his Gila Monsters to have success, the following players will have to have solid seasons: RB/LB Ed Gonzalez (5-10, 165, Sr.), WR/LB Luis Rodriguez (6-0, 175, Sr.), OL/DL Pete Nevarez (5-10, 200, Sr.), WR/DB Wyatt Perry (6-0, 155, Sr.), RB/LB Arsenio Onofre (5-8, 165, Jr.), OL/DL Israel Herrera (5-11, 215, Sr.), OL/DL Ryan Gonzalez (5-10, 160, Jr.), QB/DB Freddie Burkhardt (5-10, 155, So.) and WR/DB Luis Ortiz (5-7, 145, So.).

Maybe Metcalf and crew will find 8-man football to their liking.

Brophy is a private, Jesuit, Catholic college preparatory that is committed to the belief that all creation is a reflection of God's love and presence which demands a passionate and generous response from the entire community.

We are dedicated to students of all socio-economic backgrounds who have the potential and desire to maximize their God-given gifts.

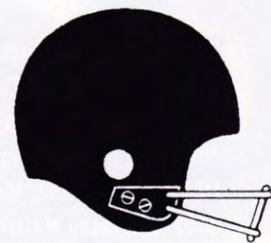

By creating an atmosphere for academic, emotional and spiritual growth, Brophy develops critically thinking, articulate, sensitive and aware students with a strong sense of self-worth. Through the process of nurturing the soul, Brophy offers these students an intimate relationship with God and inspires leaders who are devoted to the service of others in a global community.

Familiar Names Dominate 2006 Finals

But Newcomers Centennial, Cactus Shadows Emerge as First-Time Champs

It's off to the races for Coolidge running back T.J. White (#3) in the Bears' 28-21 victory over Wickenburg in the 3A title game. Cactus Shadows wide receiver Kyle Watkins (#44) turned in one of the most dynamic performances in Arizona football state finals history, grabbing 21 passes, as the Falcons upended Higley, 28-14, in the 4A-2 finale (Paynter Pics).

By David Kukulski

If you follow prep football in Arizona, you're familiar with the teams from Hamilton, Saguario, Coolidge, Thatcher and Mayer.

Hamilton ... the Huskies have been in the big-school finals five of the last six years, winning the top prize three times.

Saguario ... a couple of appearances in the finals, with one state football crown before 2006.

Coolidge ... this 3A powerhouse now has seven titles in 10 championship games ... will be going for a Three-Peat in 2007.

Thatcher ... six championships in eight title game appearances ... the Eagles constantly battle for 2A honors.

Mayer ... two championships, seven finales in school history for the Wildcats.

So, when the 2006 season ended and the AIA awarded these clubs their beautiful trophies, it was a terrific accomplishment.

It was a proud moment in school history.

But, for the administrators, faculty, students, coaches, players and fans at Centennial and Cactus Shadows, last season was a breakthrough year.

You see, the Coyotes and Falcons, respectively, had never walked away with a state championship trophy in football before.

Not only that, but Coach Richard Taylor at Centennial and Coach Chad DeGrenier at Cactus Shadows guided their teams to perfect seasons – Centennial was 14-0 and Cactus Shadows finished 15-0. The only other undefeated prep football team last year was 1A champ Mayer.

So, congratulations to all seven champions. You gave us a lot of thrills in 2006. The quality of play continues to improve in the Grand Canyon State.

And, to Centennial and Cactus Shadows, welcome to the party! Now the fun really starts – trying to defend those titles.

Let the games begin!

A collage of black and white photographs showing various football players and coaches holding trophies. The central text reads "HANDING OUT THE HARDWARE" in a large, stylized font. The photos depict different groups of people, including players in jerseys with numbers like 30, 5, 32, and 17, and coaches in polo shirts, all posing with their awards in front of school buildings.

Is This THE Year for the Cardinals?

WHISENHUNT TAKES OVER AS HEAD COACH

Obviously, the Cardinals didn't enjoy much success in 2006. Fans of professional football teams that win five and lose 11 have very little to celebrate, with rare exceptions.

Management wasn't too thrilled either. At season's end, Coach Dennis Green was fired and the Ken Whisenhunt era began. Certainly, Whisenhunt has a great reputation in the league, having served on the coaching staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers for the past six years. And he brought along Russ Grimm to serve as his assistant head coach; Grimm is widely regarded as one of the top offensive line coaches in football.

It isn't as though the Cardinals don't have talent. In fact, that shaky 5-11 ledger could easily have been 8-8 or better, if Arizona had just closed out some games they let get away. Bitter early-season home losses to St. Louis (16-14), Kansas City (23-20) and Chicago (24-23) left fans shaking their heads in disbelief as they exited brand-new University of Phoenix Stadium.

Can they get it right? Start with second-year quarterback Matt Leinart. Green benched veteran Kurt Warner when the club started slowly. In the middle of a devastating seven-game losing streak, Leinart got the nod. He completed nearly 57% of his passes, threw for over 2,500 yards, but finished with more interceptions (12) than touchdowns (11). Warner contributed another 1,377 yards passing, but he was far from spectacular.

Leinart must become the quarterback the Cardinals envisioned when they drafted him. And the sooner the better. Because the franchise needs a great quarterback so badly, Arizona fans are hoping Leinart can grow up quickly.

He has a great pair of wideouts in Anquan Bolden and Larry Fitzgerald. They combined for 152 receptions for 2,149 yards and 10 six-pointers in 2006. And their numbers were down! Remember Fitzgerald missed nearly half of last season due to injury. In 2005, the pair totaled 205 catches for 2,811 yards and 17 TDs.

Former Indianapolis Colt Edgerrin James was signed last year to energize the rushing attack. The results were so-so. Yes, James gained his 1,000 yards, but he averaged just 3.4 yards per carry and his long-gainer of the year was 18 yards.

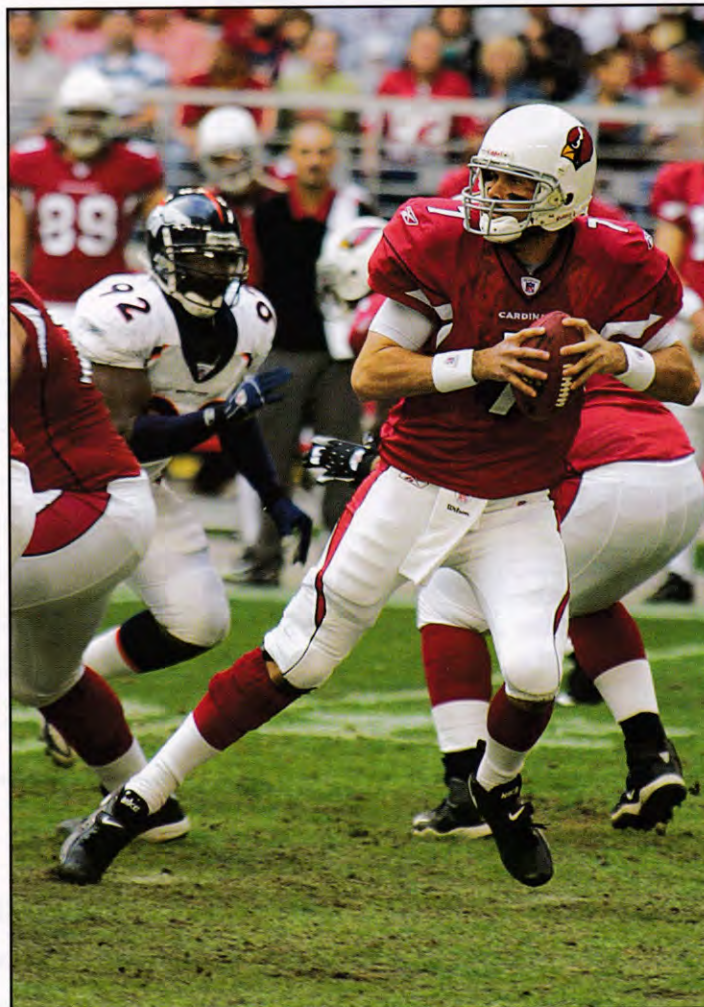

Everyone knows Arizona has been extremely disappointing in the offensive line. Big Leonard Davis left for Dallas and the Cardinals brought in a couple of notable free agents (Mike Gandy and Al Johnson), along with first-round pick Levi Brown of Penn State to shore things up. It looks as though second-year pro Deuce Lutui is a keeper on the OL too.

Grimm just needs to work his magic with this group.

Defensively, the Cardinals gave up 24 points and 349 yards in total offense per game. While not horrible, Whisenhunt will be looking for substantial improvement here too.

Veteran safety Adrian Wilson is a playmaker and

The Cardinals went with rookie Matt Leinart at quarterback for most of the 2006 campaign. The former Heisman Trophy winner had his moments, throwing for 2,547 yards and 11 scores. But, for Arizona to post a winning record and have a shot at the playoffs, Coach Whisenhunt and crew will need Leinart to improve on those numbers in 2007 (Paynter Pics).

was named to the Pro Bowl last season for the first time in his career. He wound up with 82 tackles, five sacks, four interceptions and two fumble recoveries on the year.

Who else will step up? Will youngsters like LB Gerald Hayes, LB Karlos Dansby, CB Antrel Rolle, DT Darnell Dockett, S Aaron Francisco, etc. get the job done? Can DE Bertrand Berry make it through a full season and avoid major injuries? Defensive coordinator Clancy Pendergast was retained by Whisenhunt and is widely respected.

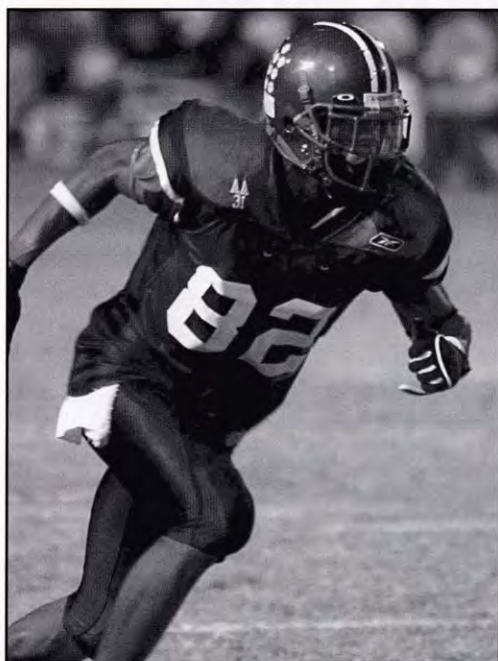

NFL football is known as a field-position game. Can the defense come together and give Leinart and that evolving Arizona offense a short field to the red zone?

How about a few smiles for those Big Red boosters leaving that beautiful stadium this year?
